

schrader valves

Schrader Valves are the “Poorman’s” Air Management kit..... or, they are a lifesaver when you are on the road and have an unexpected bag failure. Keep 4 in your glovebox.

They are also used to test the travel of your bags when installing brackets before welding in place.

Do not use Loctite if you plan on removing the Schrader Valve in the future. Use Teflon tape, or pipe dope.